

PROGRAM / PROJECT NAME	ORGANIZATION NAME	Location	DESCRIPTION	AMOUNT FUNDED
RECYCLED RECREATIONS MAKER STATION	STAMFORD MUSEUM & NATURE CENTER	Stamford	The Recycled Recreations Maker Station will be designed to be innovative, hands-on space where visitors and schools can build and create using exclusively recycled or reclaimed materials as their medium.	$ 2,525.00
A COMMUNITY COMPOSTING PILOT AT BILLINGS FORGE	PRESERVATION OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING / BILLINGS FORGE	Hartford	To collect the majority of food scraps generated in all of Billings Forge's residences, restaurants and program spaces by providing the receptacles, collection services, and signage in both English and Spanish; training programs to Billings Forge Kitchen and Firebox restaurant staff as well as the residents before, during and after the program.	$ 10,000.00
KIDS CAN COMPOST	CHILDREN'S MUSEUM, INC	Hartford region	Kids Can Compost aims to engage children and families in composting activities through hands-on experiential learning at The Children's Museum, as well as in elementary schools by museum educators.	$ 10,000.00
CT GREEN LEAF SCHOOLS WASTE REDUCTION RESOURCES	INSTITUTE OF SUSTAINABLE ENERGY AT EASTERN CT STATE UNIVERSITY FOR GREEN LEAF SCHOOLS	Statewide	Help Green LEAF schools, CT School Districts, municipalities and others by developing a web-based resource of case studies with examples of best practices, resource information, template documents, contracts and policies that can be used to decrease waste; hosting roundtables with school facilities, administrators, and board of education members to create template policies and procedures where not yet exist; offering webinars on high-interest topics about waste reduction; organizing a 2017/18 conference with a theme of "K12 Waste Reduction" to share resources and best practices.	$ 10,000.00
MIDDLETOWN RECYCLING SIGNAGE COLLABORATION	WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY	Middletown	Wesleyan University, Middlesex Community College, The City of Middletown, Middlesex Hospital, and the Middletown Resource Recycling Advisory Commission will collaborate to create new cross-city signage for trash, recycling and compost bins.	$ 10,000.00
CT FOOD WASTE REDUCTION TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE	CENTER FOR ECO TECH	Statewide	To expand food waste diversion technical assistance services.	$ 5,000.00

REUSE MORE	ECOWORKS - CREATIVE REUSE	New Haven region	Educational programming to increase skills and understanding of the creative arts using scrap materials, waste reduction and reuse.	$ 5,000.00
KENEY PARK WOOD MATERIALS MANAGEMENT PROGRAM	FAMILY DAY FOUNDATION INC D/B/A KENEY PARK SUSTANABILITY PROJECT	Windsor	To support Keney Park's wood materials management site which will serve as a location to sort and process wood materials gathered from maintenance activities in the park. To produce saleable timber, character wood and other wood based products from materials generated within Keney Park.	$ 5,000.00
KITCHEN TO PANTRY PROJECT	HANDS ON HARTFORD	Hartford	Give community pantry participants easier access to fresh vegetables and fruit; to make it possible for pantry families to improve their health through better nutrition; to reduce food waste by repurposing good produce that would otherwise go in the garbage.	$ 3,120.00
EPIC	WATERBURY, CITY OF	Waterbury	Creation of a set of three recycling promotional videos in the predominant languages used within the City: English, Spanish and Albanian.	$ 5,000.00
RESIDENTIAL(MATTR ESS) PICK UP PROGRAM PILOT	PARK CITY GREEN	Bridgeport	Funds will be used to reach populations who cannot easily access the collection and pick up services provided by the Mattress Stewardship Program currently, thus expanding recycling volumes and revenues, as well as expanding employment opportunities with the creation of 5 new jobs.	$ 5,000.00